LIQUIDS, AEROSOLS AND GELS

There are strict rules for taking liquids, aerosols and gels on the majority of international flights.

Each container of liquids, aerosols or gels in your carry-on baggage must be 100 millilitres or less. All the containers must be sealed in a single transparent, one-litre or less plastic bag.

You may still carry on board prescription medicines. Baby products and non-prescription medicines required on board are also allowed, however proof of need may be required.

For more information, visit the website: <http://travelsecure.infrastructure.gov.au>

CHECK IN DETAILS - INTERNATIONAL

Economy class: a minimum of 2 hours prior to departure

Business / First class: 90 minutes prior to departure

If connecting from a domestic to international flight in Australia, check in at least 60 minutes prior to departure

HEALTH

SEATING

Seating requests are not guaranteed by airlines and may be changed without notice

Booking terms and conditions can be viewed online at www.flightcentrebusinesstravel.com.au/booking-terms

The below is only a brief summary of some of the important points elaborated on in our terms and conditions document.

Seating and Meal preferences - Seating and meal preference requests are not guaranteed by airlines and may be changed without notice. Your preferences are maintained via your membership details with the specific airline. Please ensure your preferences are up to date to ensure reward points, seating and meal requirements are current.

Your Flight Centre Business Travel office number is all you need to speak to a dedicated Travel Manager 24 hours a day.

IMPORTANT - PLEASE READ - PERSONAL ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Authorities in the United Kingdom and the USA have released advice that passengers on some routes may be required to show that personal electronic devices are sufficiently charged prior to boarding. Passengers who don't meet these requirements face confiscation of devices and possible cancellation of their booking.

It is possible this restriction may extend to additional countries in the short term. To prevent any confiscation of property or decreased productivity, Flight Centre Business Travel strongly recommends you charge all personal electronic devices prior to travel.

New Zealand Traveller Declaration (NZTD) and Entry Visa Requirements -

Australian passport holders must now complete a New Zealand Traveller Declaration Form (NZTD) before passport control on arrival. The NZTD is an online form that collects information about guests travel & is digitally linked to passports for streamlined arrival in NZ. This can be completed online or by using the NZTD app at no cost.

For clients arriving by air (plane), the earliest you can submit your declaration is 24 hours before you start your trip to New Zealand. It needs to be submitted by the time passport control in NZ is reached. A paper version of the form will also be available on arrival for travellers who are unable to complete it online.

For clients arriving by sea (ship), the earliest you can submit your declaration is 24 hours before departing the vessels last foreign port prior to arriving in New Zealand. It needs to be submitted by the time the vessel has berthed at its first port in NZ.

For more information about the NZTD, please visit www.travellerdeclaration.govt.nz. For all other passport holders, please review visa and entry requirements at www.govt.nz/browse/immigration-and-visas/visitor-visas-and-the-nzeta

Travelling to the USA - If you are travelling to the United States please see <https://esta.cbp.dhs.gov> for important information regarding compulsory pre-registration for their visa waiver program (ESTA). Australian passport holders will not be able to enter the United States without a valid ESTA (or visa). Please note, you may not meet the requirements of ESTA and may be required to obtain a visa.

Travelling to the UK - New ETA Requirement for UK Visits (incl Aust/NZ)

If you're travelling on or after 8 January 2025, Visa-exempt travellers, including children need to apply for an electronic travel authorisation (ETA) to visit the UK <https://www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa>

From the 26th February 2026, Dual Citizens of Australia and UK/Ireland are exempt from the ETA program and will be required to travel with both passports.

For details and to apply prior to travel, visit: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/apply-for-an-electronic-travel-authorisation-eta>

Travelling to Canada (by air only) - Travellers to Canada who are citizens of a visa exempt country (incl. Australia, NZ & UK) must obtain approval. Refer to <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/visas.asp> to find out if your passport allows you to travel to Canada without a visa, but requires an eTA (Electronic Travel Authorisation)

Passport Validity - All travellers must have a valid passport for international travel and many countries require at least 6 months validity from the date of return and some countries require a machine-readable passport

Travel Advice - We recommend that you contact the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade or visit their website at <http://www.smartraveller.gov.au/> for general travel advice

General Health Advice - General health advice for the destination you wish to visit is also available from DFAT (see <http://www.smartraveller.gov.au/>).

Travel Security - For the latest up to date Travel advice from the Australian Government visit - <http://www.smartraveller.gov.au>

Be sure to register on the website so you can be contacted in case of an emergency.
