This space will be grounded in respect, care, and collective responsibility where everyone can speak, listen, learn, connect and belong.

Our Shared Commitments

By being here, we agree to:

- » Respect all identities, experiences, and perspectives;
- » Listen - even in disagreements;
- » Create a safe place for ourselves and other participants;
- » Prevent and speak out against any forms of lateral violence;
- » Hold space for others, especially unheard voices; Protect confidentiality of shared stories;
- » Contribute to a safe and inclusive environment.

How We Show Up

- » Speak from your own experience
- » Address ideas, not people
- » Share space (step up, step back)
- » Be mindful of accessibility

Care, Safety & Community

- » Child-friendly and family-supportive space
- » Quiet space available for rest and privacy
- » Keep spaces accessible (clear walkways, low fragrance, respect service animals)

Shared Responsibility

Creating this space is something we do together. Let's show up with care, courage, and respect and make this a place where everyone has a place to belong. Common Threads staff are available throughout the summit if you need assistance, support or guidance.
